

FAQ

I have multiple locations for my boutique but created just one account online; how do I place orders for all when I need them shipped to different locations?

We only ship to the shipping address provided & cannot ship to multiple addresses. If you would like your order shipped to various addresses, please place one order for each shipping address.

Can I use your pictures to help promote the products via my social media/online?

Absolutely! We just ask that you not alter the pictures in any way & please link them to our social media outlets.

If you have questions regarding our wholesale process & policies, please contact us.
